An Exhibition in connection with the Church Missionary Society has been arranged to be held in the Diocesan Hall on March 25 and 26. A deputation of four speakers from London will conduct the Exhibition with local help. There will be courts illustrating missionary work in East Africa, Moslem Lands, India, and Japan. It is hoped that renewed interest may be stirred up by this Exhibition, and any who would be ready to help in any way are requested to send their names to the Archdeacon of Limerick.

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

Weekly Cattle and Sheep Market.

Wednesday, Jan. 12th.—Entries showed a larger numerical register in cattle than last week; class average description; beef scarce, but enquired for. As shipping interests were operating, there was a healthier tone and firmer demand in business, so that exchanges were readier than for some time back. Small stores came in for attention, and made improved rates on last market. Business all round moved in a steady groove; nicer lots met a satisfactory sale; a good "ring." Fat 2½-year-old bullocks, £15 15s—£19 15s; second run, forward, £13—£15 10s; heifers, £16 5s—£17 5s; fat cows, £14 10s—£17 15s; 1½-year-old bullocks, £11—£13 15s; second run, £9 12s 6d—£10 15s; heifers, £11—£13; second run, £9 10s—£10 15s; calves, £9 12s—£11 15s; second run, £5 18s 6d—£9. Dairy department—Ordinary, £16 5s—£23 10s. Sheep section—Shorter supplies but better trade, and marked advance on last week. Fat middle-weight, £3 12s—£4 5s; small, £2 7s 6d—£3 5s. A practical clearance.—Wm. B. Fitt, Auctioneer.

DEATH OF MR PATRICK GLEESON.

We regret to record the death of Mr Patrick Gleeson, licensed vintner, which took place at his residence 68 William street, on Thursday evening, after an illness of some duration. Mr Gleeson was widely known and highly esteemed in Limerick and Clare, and his demise has been heard of with sorrow by his friends, who deeply sympathise with his family in their bereavement. The funeral, which was large and representative, took place to-day for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery after Requiem Mass at St. Michael's Parish Church.
