

Frewen, on the 10th of ed—Guilty, to be trans-

the Attorney-General ap-
n adjourned until Monday,

t having been made, the

LET,

MARCH next,
PLANTATION and LANDS OF LAWN,

Plantation Measure,
RM CAN BE GIVEN.
y situate on the banks of ds a most pleasing view of ns, and is within one mile

ur, Drawing Room, 4 Bed
ervants' Apartments, &c.
DELMEGE and FERGUSON,
ucester-st. Dublin.

Feb. 5.

NKS.

Hospital.

Committee, held this day, it nously—"That the best e conveyed to the Hon. and of KILLALOE, for his eloa Sunday last, when, not-y of the weather, there was uding the following dona-

.. ..	£1
.. ..	1
.. ..	1
.. ..	1
Esq. ..	1
.. ..	1

Committee be given to the ly granting the use of the ing Gentlemen, who kindly ne High Sheriff, Richard Maunsell, Henry Watson,

the Committee.

JAMES MORRIS,

Hon. Sec.

of the Subscribers is re-ext, the 10th inst., at One

Board Room, Feb. 3.

LET,

AND GROCERY, TEA, AND REHOUSE,

FEET, KILRUSH,

ST CENTRAL PART OF TOWN.

Proprietor, who is retiring Let the above House and gest and most respectable r the last twenty-four years nt in any country town in this House are of the high-ncoming tenant would de-their continued support and rns are in the best order, and outlay. There is a Coach also a nice Garden.

ade, which is of the first the market, may be had at

ade to JOHN CURTIN,

February 5.

Builders.

reserving and improving the e Notice, that they will uilding of a TOWER and VES ROCK, (River Shannon), ecifications may be seen on ary at this Office, or to Secretary to the Chamber —from whom may be had required to find Security for Work, and to pay for the dorsed, to be addressed to the 16th day of MARCH hold themselves bound to

Order,

H. VEREKER, Sec.

DEATHS.

Last night, at his residence, Catherine-street, John Edwards, Esq. many years extensively engaged in the Butter trade of this port, which he conducted with a character for strict integrity and punctuality. His death is deservedly lamented by his friends.

At Rathkeale, deeply lamented by her family and friends,
Mrs. Patterson, wife of Charles Patterson, Esq. M. D.

Yesterday morning, at her residence, Summer Hill, Nenagh, Frances, relict of the late Surgeon Hargrove, Royal Horse Artillery.

At Shinrone, Mrs. Anne Harte, in her 87th year.

At Bank Place, David, youngest son of Alderman Dawson.

Yesterday, at the Convent of the Christian Brothers, on the Roxboro' road, Mr. James Dwyer, a junior member of the order.

At Market Alley, Ellen, wife of Mr. Patrick Naughten, Victualler.

At Ennis, of dysentery, Mr. John England.

At Tulligg, near Carrigaholt, Mr. Martin Gibson.

At Birt, of influenza, Elizabeth Catherine, eldest daughter of John Orr, Esq. Barrackmaster, Royal Barracks, Dublin.

In the 77th year of her age, at Donaghadee, Eliza, relict of the late Stewart King, Esq. Master in Chancery.

At Strand Hill, county Leitrim, James, only son of James Fawcitt, Esq.

Eleanor, wife of Bernard Maguire, Esq. of Belmont, county Westmeath.

At Rathmines, Mr. Anthony Willis, aged 80 years.

Henry Eccles Roderick, Esq. of Lofty Lodge, Youghal.

In Bantry, of fever, George Staveley, Esq.

James C. Phair, Esq. Solicitor, son of the late Francis Phair, Brooklodge, county Cork, Esq.

The widow of the late Thomas E. Lalor, Esq. D.L. Carrick on Suir.

On Saturday, the 22d ult. at Killenaule, Mr. Jeremiah Hickey, aged 85 years, deservedly esteemed and regretted by his numerous friends.

On the 2nd inst. at Booterstown Avenue, Dublin, Miss Eliza Philan, very much regretted.

At Birkenhead, Cheshire, aged 83 years, Lucinda Rose, relict of the Rev. Edward Henry Hoare, and sister of the late Rev. John Hoare, Chancellor and Vicar General of the diocese of Limerick.

In Westport, John Woodhouse, Esq.

At his residence, Annadale, county Leitrim, of influenza,
James Wilson Stack, Esq. aged 70 years.

At Lower Gardiner street, Dublin, Annie, wife of William Allin Exham, Esq. Barrister at Law.

At her residence in Merrion square, in the 83d year of her age, Rebecca, relict of John Tyrrell, of Clonard, co. Kildare, Esq.

At Donnybrook, of influenza, Mary Anne, sister of John Madden, Esq.

Suddenly, Elizabeth, wife of John Hare, Esq. of Upper Fitzwilliam street, Dublin, and Deer Park, Cashel, and daughter of the late Alderman Humphrey Croley, of Cork.

At Lower Gardiner street, Edward Knight, aged 19 years, second son of Edward Moore, Solicitor.

At Summer Hill, Kate Ellen, wife of J. B. Greene, Esq.

At Upper Camden street, John Rooney, Esq.

Mr. William Perrin, South Cumberland street.

At Harold's cross, Olivia, wife of James Young, Esq. and daughter of W. Bernard, Esq. of Carlow.

At Duke row, Summer Hill, Mr. W. Babington, aged 88 years, 50 years a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Society.

At his residence, Rossmore Lodge, Kildare, Thomas Ferguson, Esq.

At Tanderagee, James Magill, Esq. aged 75.

At Erne street, Mr. William Phillips, scene painter of the Theatre Royal.

In London, on the 31st ultimo, Lieut General Sir John Maelean, K.C.B. Colonel of 27th Regt. or Inniskilleners.

Martin Barr, Esq. of Henwick Hall, near Worcester, brother of the late Charles Barr, Esq. banker, of Leeds, and of Lieut. Colonel Marcus Barr, C.B. Adjutant General of the Queen's forces during the campaign of the Sutlej.

At Hanover terrace, Notting hill, Mrs. Charlotte Spens, widow of Lieut. Colonel Archibald Spens.

At Keston Lodge, Judah Frances, relict of Colonel Toone, in her 84th year.

At Sevenoaks, Kent, James Gellatly, Esq. M.D.

In Portman square, the Countess of Beverley.

At Twickenham, aged 68, Colonel Algernon Disney.

Susannah, wife of S. Swinfen, Esq. of Swinfen Hall, Stafford, and sister of the late Sir T. Durrant, Bart.

At Leamington, the Rev. Edward Cokayne Frith.

At Bayswater, Margaret, relict of the Right Rev. Joseph Allen, D.D. late Lord Bishop of Ely.

At Southampton, Sir William D'Arcy Todd, K.H. aged 77.

Mr. Ponsonby, of Regent Circus, Piccadilly, aged 81.

Mr. William A. Bain, of Duke street, Westminster, newspaper agent.

At Cadoxton Lodge, Glamorganshire, Charles Frederick, son of C. M. Carré, Esq. of Guernsey.

At Wiesbaden, Major George Duff, formerly of the 19th Lancers, and of Jumpers House, near Christchurch.

At Bordeaux Restigouche, Canada East, Thomas Busted, Esq. aged 81 years. He was a native of Cork, and emigrated in 1786.

At St. John's, Newfoundland, aged 105 years, Mr. J. Carroll.
He was a native of Waterford, and lived on the island eighty five years.

At the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, Pan, Sister Anastatia M'Gawley, one of those who came over from Ireland to assist in the establishment of the order. She had been previously a member of community in Cork, and sister to the Rev. Mr.
M'Gawley, of Dublin.

On his march from Lahore to Agra, at Missouri, James Sibley, Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 54th Bengal Native
Infantry, son of Robert Sibley, Esq. of Great Ormond street.

At Up-park Camp, Jamaica, the wife of Major Luke Smyth
O'Connor, 1st West India Regiment.

At Calcutta, Mary, wife of Mr. Timothy O'Sullivan, of the preventive service.

Wednesday, at his lodgings, William-street, George Hatchell
Esq. brother of the Solicitor General.

At Heathfield, on Monday last, to the deep regret of his sorrowing family and a large circle of acquaintance, in the 23d year of his age, John, second son of Edward Lloyd, Esq.
His premature death was occasioned by influenza, which terminated in fever, caught while in attendance at the Special Commission in Limerick.

At Attyville, county Sligo, William Knott, Esq.

On Saturday last, of fever, in the 35th year of his age, much and deservedly regretted by an extensive circle of friends and connections, John Walker, Esq. of Lahern, county of Kerry.

At his son's residence in Carrick-on-Suir, James Hayden, Esq. father of Daniel Hayden, Esq. Solicitor, of that town.

Mr. Richard Corcoran, of Graigue, father of the Rev. D.
Corcoran, P.P. Mullinahone.

At Montreal, Lower Canada, of fever, Richard Gaff, Esq.
formerly of Carrigafyle Castle, county Kerry.