

protestant Orphan thedral on 12th

Trade.

BLIC.

VES,

AVES,

FACTURER

the Nobility and manufacture of the superiority of design, urers in Limerick,
the marked dis-

th
AL, LACE at the Royal rick, as also the exhibition, and the which for design d to maintain the uafecture, so highly Kingdom, as well

ublic, in connexion
e Retail Warehouse, TREET,

alled stock will always Capes, Scarfs, Veils, rimings, &c., &c.,

ere to the principle ers, which she has oods will be offered Warehouse will have

e. orders by Post or d and forwarded to impression which has gs to state that the rtised for next SATURarticle from her Factory.

Feb. 26.

JURNIPS.

ld,
THIS CITY, TURNIPS, land HAY. premises.

Feb. 26.

late Mr. Whale, of Thornbill.

DEATHS.

Last night, at his residence, Thornville, on the North Strand, after a short illness, to the profound grief of his family and immediate friends, James Harvey, Esq. an extensive export merchant and shipowner—a gentleman of the first mercantile character, whose virtues had endeared him to all his fellow-citizens, by whom he is most sincerely regretted.

Monday last, in Roche's-street, Mary, wife of Mr. Thomas Vokes, boot and shoe manufacturer.

In Mary-street, much regretted, Mrs. Catherine Molony, aged 70 years.

In Tralee, Mr. Thomas Hurly, for many years deputy clerk of the peace, and petty sessions clerk of the town.

At Tentore House, Queen's County, John, only son of Robert Wolfe, Esq.

At Castle street, Nenagh, Miss Mary Ryan, stationer.

At Graystown, near Killenaule, Mr. John Meagher, Printer.

At St. Luke's place, Cork, R. Watson, Esq. late of London.

In Galway, Eliza, wife of Mr. E. Power, pawnbroker.

George Rait, Esq. of Rathmoyle, King's County.

At her residence in Belskar, Anne, wife of Richard Sparrow, Esq. of Wexford.

In Derry, Michael Lipsett, Esq. late of Ballyshannon.

In Dungannon, Mr. Terence Branigan.

At Windgates, county Kildare, Edward Malone, Esq. son of Laurence Malone, Esq. Enstace street.

James Arthur, Esq. of the Bush, near Antrim.

At the residence of his son, Mr. J. D. Scott, Middle Abbey street, aged 87 years, W. Scott, Esq. late of Stephen's green.

At Skerries, Dublin, Sophia, wife of Robert Shaw, Esq.

In Drogheda, John Oriel, only son of Robert Pentland, Esq. Surgeon to the County Infirmary.

Emily, daughter of Mr. Terence Brady, of Thomas street.

At Deer Park, near Honiton, Devonshire, Catherine Stewart, daughter of William Meade Smythe, Esq. and niece of the Earl of Wicklow.

At Hamilton, Scotland, Charlotte Anne, relict of Hugh Ryves Graves, Esq. Barrister at Law, of Dublin.

At St. Heller, Jersey, Eliza, wife of William Cooper, Esq. late of Dublin.

At his residence in London, Thomas Cooke, Esq. the celebrated musical composer.

Mr. Rodwell, Collector of Customs at Leith.

At Anglesea, Hants. Lieut. General Montagu Burrows, in his 73d year, late 64th Regt.

At his residence, Thorparch, Yorkshire, George Carroll, Esq.

At Eaton square, Augusta, wife of Sir J. Pakington, M.P.

At his residence, Onasburgh Terrace, Regent's Park, Lieut. Col. Maling, late Assistant Military Secretary to the Commander in Chief.

At Lancaster place, Strand, H. W. Morris, Esq. of the Barrister at Law.

In London, the beloved wife of Gurney Barclay, Esq. She died of fright, occasioned by the demise of her cousin, Mrs. Backhouse, on board the fleet at Lisbon.

At Plymouth, Major Fellowes.

In Bath, Lachlan Macbaine, Esq.

At Mornington crescent, three weeks after his arrival from Jamaica, Henry Laurie, Esq. Assistant Commissary General to her Majesty's forces.

At Bath, Jane, widow of Captain John Watson, 76th Regt.

At Ashburton, Ann, relict of John Polexin Bastard, Esq. of Kitley House, aged 76.

At Penzance, Retired Commander T. Ratsey, R. N. aged 73.

At Retford, Samuel Thorold, Esq.

Mr. Cottenham Moss, partner in the banking firm of John Moss and Co. Liverpool.

In Canterbury, Mary Sophia, relict of Lieut. Colonel John James, R.M.

At Montreal, of scarlet fever, Joseph Frederick, fourth son of the Rev. W. Agar Adamson, late of Ennis, county Clare, aged 15 years.

At Brujet, in France, Captain Richardson, eldest son of the late Archibald Richardson, Esq. of Cairn Castle and Cushendall, county Antrim, late Surgeon General,

At Kingston, Richard Williams, Esq. M.D. Surgeon, half pay 67th Light Infantry.

At Sorel, Mr. Thomas Little, late Colour Serjeant 1st Battalion, 71st Regiment.

At Corfu, sincerely and deservedly lamented, Edward Collins, Esq. Quarter Master 10th Regt. of Foot.

At Palermo, W. A. Home, youngest son of the late Sir E. Home, Bart.

Tickens, T All will attendanc

Terms a

Pure

lyl

S ins

L SAT

Sale Day

Lime

In

Time o'Clock.

At the

ON

FOR

de

Double

Horses,

The

THUR

Parti

Mr L

96,

32

In the

Marion

and R

Goold

the 18

o'Clock

Inn's-

the hi

this m

That

CUR

Orrer

Acres

Office

Wm.

ment

Da