

are empowered to
 profits of the corpo-
 nile living, and to rphans. Policies
 nt of BLINDNESS,
 OR ANY OTHER
 bling the assured.
 mitted to a full
 advantages of the

ly low. Annual
 e of life.
 -40 £2 13 6
 50 3 18 6
 quosied.

and Secretary.

NESSY, Esq.
 dock, Esq.
 ay, Esq.
 , Esq.
 ng.
 H. Nolan, & Co.
 el and John Foster.
 , Esq.
 March 22.

UNION.

above Union will
 willing to supply
 the entire Union

on all occasions as 'an independent member, determined to support the interests of my constituents and the welfare of Old Ireland.' "

Saturday last the ship Jessie, of this port, Captain D. Gorman, left the quays for Quebec, with 400 passengers, including 20 in the cabin berths—amongst them Major O'Dell and family. of Ballingarry.

James Bennett, Esq., county coroner, held an inquest upon the body of Thomas Dwyer, a farmer, at Cluggan, on Sunday, and who was killed while obstructing a seizure of cattle for rent. There was a verdict of wilful murder, and the coroner has issued his warrant against ten persons implicated in the fatal deed.

Mr. Sergeant Howly opened his general sessions court at Clonmel yesterday.

At the Cathedral on Sunday last the form of prayer and thanksgiving for her Majesty and the Royal infant was offered up.

The lands of Kilcarragh, Waterford, containing 202 acres, late in the possession of the Hon and
 Rev. George Bourke, are being let by the Ecclesiastical board.

The Biblical Greek Prizes at Trinity College, have been awarded to Davis, Samuel, Sch., first prize ; McStanley, Hugh, Sch., second prize ; and a certificate for distinguished answering to Evans, Thomas Walker, Sch. A notice has been posted to students, cautioning them against taking any part in politics, on pain of a public reprimand for first and expulsion for second offence.

Dr. Murphy a Jesuit of Clongowes is to