

and this day ex-
 sq. M.P. and Walter appointed Physician
 to the parishes of
 sentenced to seven er of Cork, for a y, Governor of the
 his demesne planted
 has let out half in
 he has given seed.
 to the Rev. Lucius
 £1,350 a-year, as
 n-hall, Carlow, was an infusion of some
 and) Railway Com-
 h, and nine Scotch
 class having paid
 plied to the Rolls
 scheme had been amalgamation with
 e in his opposition
 nder the Irish poor
 of the 92d attacked
 manner in search of
 The result of an
 at the soldiers were
 this garrison, where better conducted in
 to Parliament for
 and improve that daily on the Camlin
 red out on Monday,
 or rifle clubs in the re actively engaged ondon and Dublin
 nch to try if sheep
 , at the suit of the
 yd, defendant in the w, the plaintiff, the dical students held session, Mr. Joseph was adjudged first
 rgery.
 ong, was drowned
 e City of Dublin
 hief, renders it ne-
 he therefore wishes
 loc.—See Advt.

Louisa Watkins, daughter of James M'Mullen, of Cork, Esq.

DEATHS.

At her residence, Cecil street, aged 84 years, Mrs. Mary Cudmore, relict of the late Paul Cudmore, Esq.
 At the Glebe House of Thurles, county Tipperary, Elizabeth French Laurence, daughter of the late Lord Archbishop of Cashel.
 Richard M'Namara, Esq. of Loughscur, county Leitrim, J.P. brother of Major M'Namara, M.P.
 John Hynes, Esq. of New-quay, county Clare.
 At his residence, Ballyhaden Cottage, Borrisokane, suddenly, Samuel Barry, Esq. Solicitor, of disease of the heart, aged 72 years.
 On the 12th inst. at Outerard, Lieut. Frederick Nelson, 40th Regt.
 At Pembroke Place, Dublin, Anne, relict of the late Denis M'Carthy, Esq. of Mangrove, county Cork, and sister to the late Robert Power, Esq. of Whitechurch, Waterford.
 Mrs. Alice Walsh, of Friar's Walk, Cork.
 Of paralysis, Mr. Timothy Horan, A.B. T.C.D for many years head of a respectable classical academy in Tralee.
 At his residence, Patrick street, Cork, Mr. Michael Connor.
 At Clifden, Mr. H. Kearney,
 In Galway, Mrs. Smith, wife of Mr. Park Smith, hatter.
 At the Convent of Mercy, Baggot street, Sister Mary Catherine, daughter of the late Joseph Corcoran, Esq.
 At Swords, Mr. Anthony Horne, first class Head Constable. He served 23 years in the constabulary in Westmeath.
 At Rathellan, near Bagenalstown, Mrs. Carter, widow of the late James Carter, Esq. of Ballyfoyle
 On Saturday, at Grafton street, Jane, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Richard Atkinson
 At South King street, Mrs. Anne Cosgrave, in her 84th year.
 William Michael, eldest son of William Barron, Esq. Johnstown, Waterford.
 At Marlborough street, Margaret, wife of George Papworth Esq.
 At Lower Pembroke street, Annabella, relict of the late William Stack, Esq. M.D.
 At Carlow, Margaret, wife of Philip Deighton, Esq.
 At Weymouth, Rebecca Mary, relict of the late Captain T. Curtis, R.N.
 Miss Marianne Stephenson, daughter of Major Stephenson, late of the 6th Dragoon Guards.
 Suddenly, at the residence of his father in-law, Mr. George Bickerton, Freshingfield, Suffolk, Captain Richard Heacock, commander of the barque Try Again, of Cork.
 In Dublin, Mr. Robert Smelt, aged 27 years, late of Melton Mowbray.
 At Kentish Town, Hugh Stuart Boyd, Esq late of Bally castle.
 At Exeter, Mr. W. Cole, of the West of England Insurance Office.
 At Shirley, near Southampton, Louisa Ann, eldest daughter of the late Robert Manners, Esq. grand daughter of the late Lord Wm. Manners, and niece of the late Countess of Desart.
 At Montrose, John Duke, Esq. surgeon, R.N. only brother of Sir James Duke, M.P.
 At Knightsbridge, Captain Paul Anthony Stampa, of the 6th Rifles, in his 83d year.
 At Falmouth, Mrs. Hilborne, wife of Ed. Hilborne, Esq. Collector of Excise.
 At Chigwell, the Rev. Samuel Palmer, in his 80th year.
 At Malta, of fever, Naval Cadet Ernest A. Lethbridge.
 At Englefield, Toronto, Canada West, Lieut. Col Robert R. Loring.
 At Scone, Sydney, on the 11th of November last, Mr. John Abbott, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Abbott, formerly first class Head Constable in the Police force of Ennis, county Clare.
 At Burrowa, New South Wales, Mr. Michael Hehir, land surveyor, formerly of the county Clare, Ireland.
 At Dripsey Castle, in the 74th year of his age, Major John Bowen Colthurst, late 97th Regiment.
 Suddenly, at Clonmel, under painful circumstances, Mrs. Acheson, wife of Mr. Charles Acheson.
 At Glanworth, Cork, the Rev. P. Cotter, B. C. Curate.
 At Clonmel, Miss Hickey.

country
 other e
 Fam
 Hotel,
 Mrs. S
 Limeric
 Arriv
 Rev. C
 family,
 Knox a
 THE SA APOTHE
 per ann Appli
 to the V
 to be he
 Boar
 Men
 R
 Co
 Sa
 Co
 Peti
 R
 Resp
 tion, on
 the hou
 by Mr.
 Hotel o
 said cou
 said cer
 and to t
 declare
 Dated
 The T
 give Sec
 of the C
 miles fr
 For fr
 FRANCIS
 B. MOLA
 Ennis.