DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at Castlough, in the 74th year of his age, the Rev Standish Grady Parker—one of the best of land-lords, and as charitable and kind hearted a gentleman as ever lived. He was indeed the poor man's friend, and few have descended into "the narrow house" more regretted by all.

On the 18th inst. at her residence in George's street, at the advanced age of 85, Deborah, relict of the late Samuel Alexander, of this City—a lady universally and deservedly lamented. In William-street, sincerely regretted by her family and friends, Maria, relict of the late Tobias Potter, Esq. hardware merchant.

In Rathkeale, of measles, Emma Alice, third daughter of Doctor O'Loughlin.

On Thursday morning, in Henry-street, Mrs. Spring.
On Wednesday last, at Tarbert Island, the residence of her son, Maurice O'Connell, Esq. R.N. Inspecting Officer of Coast Guards, at a very advanced age, Lucinda, relict of the late Maurice O'Connell, Esq. of Iveragh.

At Abbeyfeale, on Sunday, Surgeon John O'Halloran, eldest son of the late James O'Halloran, Esq. of Coolmaleen.

At Moycullen, county Galway, on Thursday, the Rev. Patrick Fahy, P.P. an exemplary Clergyman, whose death is deeply regretted by a numerous flock, to whose spiritual care he administered with zeal for many years.

At Riverfield, Henry, son of Mr. John Ardell, aged 21 years. Eleanor, wife of Joseph Macdonnell, Esq. of Doo Castle, late M.P. for the county of Mayo.

In Upper Cecil-street, on Tuesday last, in the 87th year of her age, Mary, relict of Edward Cudmore, Esq. of this City, Solicitor. To a well cultivated understanding she added a fund of many amiable qualities. Among the most prominent was resignation and patience under many trying circumstances—her disposition tended to charity in its primary extent—and her manners displayed a knowledge of the world, without ostentation or cold indifference.

In John's-street, Mrs. Hayes.
At Lisdoonvarna, Margaret, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Butler, of Ennis.

At Mountmellick, aged 16 years, Rosa, daughter of the Rev. H. C. Tuthill, in the sure hope of a blessed resurrection.

At the residence of Joseph Shee, Esq. Springfield Glen, Caroline, sixth daughter of the late Dr Rattray, of Daventry.

Matilda, daughter of Tobias Wilson, Esq. Waterford.
Rhoda Maria, daughter of Mr. McClelland, of Waterford.
Mr. Edward Byrne, Reporter for the Waterford Press.

In Castlebar, Eliza, third daughter of Mr. Alexander Bole, Proprietor of the Mayo Constitution.

Of spotted fever, at Annagh, near Castlebar, the Rev. Martin Heston, R.C.C.

At Galway, of fever, Mr. G. Lynch, master shoemaker.
At Clogher, of constable Rogers, an intelligent workman.

At Sprighill, near Newport, Mayo, Mr. Peter Wilks, jun.
At Glennageragh House, county Dublin, Anne, wife of Halliday Bruce, Esq. of Dame street.
