

DEATHS.

On the 27th inst. at Claremont Villa, the residence of her son, James B. Eoyd, Esq. T. C., aged 77 years, Maryanne, relict of the late Thomas Boyd, Esq. of this city, a lady universally esteemed and deservedly regretted, as she discharged the various duties of life worthy of imitation.

At Adelaide Place, Cork, Margaret, relict of the late George Richard Pain, Esq.

At the residence of her mother, Barrack street, Nenagh, Miss Christina Carey, aged 19 years, daughter of the late Mr. William T. Carey, of this City.

At Derry, Margaret, relict of the late Rev. Richard Hawkshaw, Rector of Fahan.

Of fever, in Carlow, the Rev. Wm. Joyce, Roman Catholic Chaplain to the Poorhouse and County Gaol.

At Halverstown, county Kildare, Isabella Purcell, daughter of the late John Purcell, of Dublin, Esq. M.D.

On Saturday last, at Ballycane Constabulary Barrack, in this County, Patrick, son of Head Constable Michael Slattery, after a painful and lingering illness, aged 15 years.

At Tralee, Affy, daughter of Thomas B. Hurly, Esq.

At Sunday's Well, Catherine Jane, daughter of Mr. Wm. Caulfield

Of fever, at Hollywood, county Mayo, Dr. Gardiner, leaving a widow and four children.

At Askeaton, Ellen, wife of Mr. Thomas Walsh.

At Aughnagally Lodge, Mrs. Cary, relict of Captain Cary, late of Munfin, county Wexford.

At his residence, Bloomsbury, near Monkstown, John Astle, Esq.

At Upper Charlemont street, Ellen Caroline, daughter of Charles Coote, Esq. M.D.

At his residence, Ford Lodge, Cavan, Richard Young Reynolds, Esq. aged 80 years.

The Rev. Dr. Moutague, P. P. Dungannon.

In Bath, aged 91 years, the Hon. Jane Hewitt, widow of the Hon. and Very Rev. John Hewitt, formerly Dean of Cloyne.

At Cowes, at an advanced age, Mrs. General Mainwaring.

At Woolwich, Lieut. Colonel R. Ford, R.M.

In Northumberland street, Mrs. Barron, aged 81.

In Eaton Place, Eliza, the wife of Vice Admiral the Hon. George Elliott.

At Warfield, Joseph Tongue Davenport, Esq. son of the late Rev. E. S. Davenport, of Davenport House, Salop.

At Everton, Liverpool, in the 16th year of her age, Emma Margarete, only daughter and child of Richard Walmesley Lloyd, Esq. formerly of Gwerdas, county of Merioneth; and, through excessive grief, Emma, his beloved wife.

At Bristol, George Henry, son of Samuel Hemming, Esq. of Campsie, Londonderry.

At Melbury House, the Earl of Ilchester's seat, Dorsetshire, Viscount Stavordale.

At Marlborough College, Arthur Victor, son of the late Rev. Edward Elms, Rector of Itchingfield, Sussex.

At the Post office, Airdrie, Mrs. Mary Torrance, relict of Mr. Wm. Torrance, surgeon.

At Edinburgh, Christina Syme, wife of Major Johnstone, late of the 43d Light Infantry.

Lieut. Colonel Francis Copland, formerly of the Queen's Bays, only surviving son of the late Alexander Copland, Esq. of Gunnersbury Park, Middlesex.

At her father's residence, Home Park Cottages, Stoke, Mary, daughter of Captain George F. Somerville.

At Mells, the Rev. Edward S. Maberly, Curate of that place

At Clarence Lawn, Dover, aged 85 years, Barbara de Jonchere, sister of the late Sir Edward Hales, Bart. Hales Place, Canterbury.

At Utrecht, in the 94th year of her age, Mrs. Moliere, relict of Anthony Moliere, Esq. formerly of Amsterdam, and daughter of the late Gideon Tabuëau, Esq. of Tullamoore.

At Bombay, of fever, Major Rowley, of the 2nd Bombay Cavalry, son of the late Admiral Sir Charles Rowley, Bart. and brother of the Countess of Kinnoull.

At Colombo, Ceylon, by an accidental gun-shot wound, Arthur Lambe, Esq.

At Fort Wellington, Cape of Good Hope, William Henry Nash, Lieutenant, 73d Regiment, and son of the late Rev. Thomas Nash, of Lancing, Sussex.

On board the Haddington steam ship, on her passage to Suez, James Hastie, Esq. of Calcutta, only brother of A. Hastie, Esq. M.P.

Friday, in Dublin, William Wilson, Esq. late of Ballinacurra, near this City, Civil Engineer and Union Valuator.

At Drebedtarsh, near Adare, Mrs. Snire, wife of Mr. Henry Shire, farmer.

At Curragower Mills, Julia, the beloved wife of Mr. Anthony Funn—most sincerely regretted.

Friday, in Clonmel, Richard C. Labarte, Esq.

A T A MEETING of
 of that portion of
 ly comprised within the
 held at the County Cou
 May, 1848. the followi
 adopted :—
 Proposed by J. C. D
 James F
 Resolved—That Wi
 take the chair.
 Proposed by Chris
 seconded by William H Resolved—That we annex the Old Liberties rural, to the Borough trading and mercantile our lands for their own
 the making of any su
 moreover, as we advoc
 upon a distinct underst
 to be seperated from th
 dingly done.
 Proposed by James Sex
 S. H.
 Resolved—That soon
 Borough of Limerick, right of Franchise for t
 Proposed by James R. F
 William
 Resolved—That the p
 and laid before Parliame
 in the Lords, and Mr.
 requested to present ou
 WILLI
 On the motion of Mr
 been moved from the thereto, it was.
 Proposed by Mr. Bro
 tion—That the thanks
 Howley, for his conduct
 J
 May 31.
 In C
 Andrew Lysaght, and V
 Henry M'G
 Plaintiff
 Hewitt Bridgenan,
 Robert
 Defendant
 June, 1848, at the hour
 at my Chambers, on the Set Up and Let to the term of Seven Years, pe day of May inst. all of the Farm and Lands
 180 Acres, or thereabo
 Patrick Molony and Barony of Burren, and
 Dated this 20th day
 JE
 The Tenant will be re
 Security by Recogniza
 performance of covejan
 Application to MICHA
 or to WILLIAM HENRY Summer-Hill, Dublin.