

ATHLUNKARD BOAT CLUB.

Athlunkard Boat Club makes the preliminary announcement of a grand Fete, to be held from the 10th to the 16th July in aid of the new building fund. We feel assured that this popular Club will be heartily supported, and that in every respect the Fete will be a great success.

MUSICAL SUCCESS.

At the recent examinations held in Limerick by the Incorporated Society of Musicians, London, Miss Maureen Daly, aged 9 years, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Daly 10 Sarsfield street, passed with Honours in the Preparatory Grade, gaining 90% marks. She is a pupil of Miss Agnes O'Donnell, 2 Patrick street, Limerick.

THOMOND FEIS.

The Thomond Feis will be held in Limerick on next Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The literary competitions will begin at 17 Thomas street, at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening, and at Leamy's Schools on Saturday, commencing at 11 a.m., literary competitions, recitations, story-telling, and solo singing will take place. Dancing competitions (including Championship of Munster), and warpipe and fiddle competitions will be decided at the Cornmarket on Sunday, commencing at 12 o'clock. Hurling competitions will be held in the Market Field on Sunday next.

DEATH OF DR. C. J. NOLAN, SHANAGOLDEN.

We regret to observe the announcement of the death of Dr. Cornelius J. Nolan, M.D., Shanagolden, which took place at his residence, Elm Ville, on Monday. He was for many years medical officer of the Shanagolden dispensary district, and was an able and popular practitioner in the district, with which he was professionally connected for 46 years.
