

Cork, is a native of
ociation for discount-

efully acknowledges the entitle the Protestant on of £100 :—The Lady
on of Rathkeale, collec-Caherelly Castle, £1 ;
undas, per Rev. Thomas
., £1 ; Mrs, Watson
W. F. Maunsell, £1 ;
llected for the purpose
of Dromod and Prior,

he Rev. Mr. Mathew,
at Dundrum on Satur-
il to this city, and left
e gratified to say he
s late protracted illness.
holic Prelates, held in his day week, it was
tions he published :—
re not to be used in
ng therein any public
ed with charity or reli-
ge ourselves to carry
respective dioceses.—

ot intend to interfere
trusted to our care, yet,
pprehending that its ge-
nour of the priesthood,
tion from the line of
r ourselves, and impres-
y, in our Pastoral Ad-
reby pledge ourselves,
dioceses, to remind our
en addressed to them,
t earnestly to avoid in-
rs to political subjects,
connecting themselves
irmen or secrtraries at ecording resolutions on e exhibit ourselves in sacred calling, as mi-
of the mysteries of God.
URRAY, Archbishop."

has returned to Park
blin.

urned from Dublin on for Killarney.

pperary ; Rev. J. Ryan,
Rev. J. Magee, P. P.
ebery, R. C. Curate,
rney, P. P. Clontobret, eague. The last named ould be the advocate of
made them free."

as denounced from the Hely, Roman Catholic
of the evil consequences
as associations.

, a young lady from
n the Presentation Con-

Summer-hill.

DEATHS.

On Monday night, at her father's residence in Corbally, after a short illness, Margaret, the beloved daughter of Thos. MacNamara, Esq. of Charlotte's-quay. A young lady of the most amiable manners, and whose death is greatly lamented by every individual who had the pleasure of her acquaintance

At Lucan, Maria Ellen, wife of Captain Jones, R. N.

In Henry-street, Mr. James Powell.

At Johnstown House, county Kildare, Adelaide Mary Jane, the beloved child of Samuel Hall, Esq. M. D.

In Ballne, in this county, of typhus fever, Mr. i Thomas Meade.

At Phibsborough, Celia, wife of Mr. William Nicholson.

Mr. Patrick O'Brien, of Mary's Abbey.

At Sandy Cove, near Kingstown, aged 18 years, Jane, daughter of Joseph Henry Cowan, Esq. Solicitor, Eyrecourt.

Mary, daughter of James Broughton Ballard, Esq. of Cork aged 15 years.

In Sligo, Mrs. Davis, proprietress of the Hibernian Hotel.

At Lower Sherrard-street, Samina Maria Johuston, grand daughter of Wm. L. Worthington, Esq.

At her lodgings, Passage, Ellen, relict of Richard Ronayne, Esq., late of Myrtle-hill, Terrace, Cork.

At Longfield, Cashel, the seat of Charles Bianconi, Esq., Henrietta Maria, daughter of the late James Hughes, Esq. of Capel-street.

At her residence, Filtzibbon-street, Emily, daughter of the late John Patterson, Esq., of Ballyare House, county Donegal.

At North Cumberland-street, Miss Barton.

At Bristol, Henry Penny, Esq. late 13th Foot.

Of decline, on board the Victoria, off the island of Terceira, in his 23d year, Count Edward Henry De La Feld.

The Countess de Grey, wife of the late Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and mother of the Countess Cowper, and Lady Mary Vyner. Her ladyship was daughter of the first Earl of Enniskillen, and sister of the first Earl of Belmore.

At Aylesbury, of injuries received from her clothes accidentally taking fire, Miss Selina Turner.

At Becca-hall, near Tadcaster, Adela, daughter of Colonel Markham, aged 17 years.

Samuel W. Lindsey, Esq. B I Company's Service, eldest son of the late Captain W. Lindsey, of Willfort Lodge, Tuam.

At Lower Whitecross-street, Mr. Thomas Douglas, deputy governor of the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex.

At Liverpool, Stephen Shute, Esq. of the firm of Gibbs, Bright & Co.

At Eaton-square, the daughter of Abraham George Roberts, Esq.

At Moultau, Patrick, son of the late Col. Vans Agnew, CB

At Paris, the Rev. George Caldwell, late of Jesus College, Cambridge.

At Devonport, Frederick John Blake, Clerk's Assistant of H M S Pilot, and only son of the late John Blake, Esq. Paymaster and Purser, R. N. aged 16 years.

At Stokenham, near Kingsbridge, Alfred Michael Ommanney, Esq. son of Rear Admiral Ommanney, aged 28 years.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, the Rev. John Garrett Bussell, MA, Rector of Beaford, Devon, aged 80 years.

At Midsomer Norton, Anne, daughter of the Rev. Charles Otway Mayne.

At Bath, Charles Protheroe, Esq.

In London, Captain F. Wemyss, Bombay Engineers

At Twickenham, Harriet, daughter of the late Henry Christopher Senior, Esq.

At Steventon Rectory, Cecilia, Augusta, and Mary Agnes, all of scarlet fever, children of the Rev. Wm Knight.

At Wells, Somerset, aged 18, Adelaide Esther, the wife of Cecil Nicholls, Esq. 5th Regt. M N I.

At Edinburgh, the Lady of Dr. Paterson, h p; 42nd Royal Highlanders, of a son.

At Hammersmith, Miss Nancy Smith, sister of the late General Sir Sigismund Smith, KCH., of the Royal Artillery.

At Mirzapoor, Captain Toulmin, of the 63d Native Infantry.

At Futtelghur, Louisa, wife of Dr. Bannatyne Macleod, superintending surgeon of the Decca Division.

At sea, on board the Barham, De Lacy O'Connell, eldest son of Captain G. H. Fagan, Bengal Engineers.

At Jaffna, Mrs. Arabella Warburton, relict of Crosby Warburton, Esq. Captain Ceylon Rifle Regiment.