LIMERICK UNION.

THE Guardians of the Poor of the Limerick Union will receive Sealed Tenders, to be left with me up to 4 o'clock on THURSDAY, the 20th instant, for Painting the Windows, Doors, &c. of the Workhouse; also for Flagging certain Floors, according to the specifications to be seen at the Workhouse, with Mr. Moore, clerk of the works, who will give every necessary information.

(By order) D. O'CONNOR.

August 19.

A GOOD LANDLORD.

THE Tenants and Labourers on Mr. BARKER'S Property in the Barony of Pubble Brien and Parishes of Killeedy and Croom, beg thus publicly to express their heartfelt thanks and lasting gratitude to him and his excellent Agent, Colonel JOHANSON, for the humane and generous relief afforded them during this season of dire distress. Constant employment has been given to more than 200 men daily since last December. They receive cash wages punctually once a fortnight from Mr. John Corneal, the Local Agent, to whom they are all exceedingly thankful. If all Landlords acted thus, the Workhouses would not be as thronged as they are, nor the already over-taxed land subjected to an enormous Poor rate. They sincerely and ardently beg of God to grant Mr. Barker a long and happy life.

N.B.—He has given the sum of Three Thousand Pounds to be expended on his Property, which will afford employment for one year and six months to come.

TO THE EDITOR OF

The Limerick Chronicle.

SIR—Having seen in your Journal of the 16th inst. a letter signed "D. D. Power," stating that his crops are posted for sale at the suit of Mr. Julius Delmege and Dr. Pierce, being creditors of the late, William Hamo De Massy, and that he is harassed by the proceedings of the said creditors, I beg to state that "D. D. Power" omitted (no doubt by mistake) to include an execution against him, at the suit of Mr. Devonport, for £2,700.

Mr. Devonport was, unfortunately, co-surety with my late brother for "D. D. Power's" punctual payment of the Grand Jury Less, and has been obliged to issue an execution against his property, to indemnify himself, if possible, for the deficiencies in that individual's accounts as Collector. My late brother's assets are, of course, liable in equal share with Mr. Devonport for these deficiencies.

I am confident that none of my late brother's creditors would unnecessarily harass "D. D. Power," more especially Mr. Julius Delmege and Dr. Pierce; but when they see Mr. Devonport taking active proceedings to realise his large demand, it is too much to expect they should lie by, having a proper and reasonable regard for their own interests. Whether "D. D. Power" is deserving of the sympathy which he is so desirous to enlist in his favour, I leave the public to judge.

Trusting you will give insertion to the foregoing in your paper,

I remain,
 Very sincerely yours,
 E. ROLLO MASSY.
 Dublin, 17th August.
