The Council then adjourned to quarter day, 1st November, but meet on Thursday for the special purpose of letting the tolls and customs.

A peasant, who said his name was M'Donnell was arrested in Cork, having three cows in his possession.
The prisoner said that he had brought them from the county Limerick, from Mr. M'Donnell, and he was driving them to father M'Donnell, of Agnada, as a present, the former being brother to the latter.

Over two tons weight of oysters, from the celebrated beds of Mr. Bindon, Burren, are daily forwarded by railway from this city to Dublin and Liverpool.

Mr. Seymour, of the Cork and Limerick theatre, has been performing at Ballinasloe, during the fair with great success.

The Kilmallock guardians are sending out 60 young female paupers from the workhouse to Australia.

There are but 27 cases of out-door relief in Galway union.

David Collins was waylaid between Kilmallock and Bulgaden on Sunday and killed.

On Saturday, as Joseph Russell, Esq., of Mount Temple, near Moate, was crossing one of the walls of his farm, to inspect his stock,; he fell, and one of the large stones caused a compound fracture of his thigh.

The Buckingham estates in the Queen's County and Westmeath are to be sold off on the 24th inst.

The Brethren of St. Patrick's Lodge, No. 8, Cork, assembled for banquet, at the Imperial Clarence Hotel, on Friday. Shortly after 6 o'clock, about 50 of the craft, (amongst whom several members of Lodges 1, 2, 3, 50, 71, 139, &c.) sat down to a sumptuous entertainment. At half-past 8, the Brethren were honoured by the presence of a number of ladies specially invited to participate in the musical enjoyments of the evening, the gallery and portion of the ball room having been fitted up for their reception. It is almost needless to say that their appearance was hailed with universal pleasure. The usual toasts, each briefly prefaced by the Worshipful Master, were then proposed, received, with Masonic honours, and musically responded to by the professional Brethren, A. D. Roche, Keays, Wheeler and M'Carthy, the latter of whom presided at the piano forte. The toasts of "The Ladies" was responded to with felicity by Brother Spearing, that of "The Masonic Female Orphan Asylum," by the Senior Warden, who brought forward its claims.

The hay of the ex-member for Mayo, which was seized for poor-rate, was bought in at 6d. a cwt. by the poor-law authorities, but was subsequently seized and thrown into a leak by the people.
