

in a few yards of

Richard Chadwick, Esq.

ERS.

The Limerick Union WEDNESDAY next, the for certain repairs house, Boherbuoy, to be seen at the
s. Tenders to state
be finally complete.
D. O'CONNOR,

GDOM

OMPANY

E, PALL MALL

N, DUBLIN

ment in 1834.

the Assurance

Act of Parliament; curity in an ample success which was ent in 1834, its in-per Annum.

an addition to the eir Stock, and also om the date of the insured with Profits.
e on the most mode-be paid for the first for Life.

rded, on application
Boyd, Esq., and E
rloo-place, Pall Mall

o Policies since the in March, 1834, to ollows :—

	Sum Added to Policy.
ns,	£136 14 4
	80 0 0
	20 0 0

q. 4, College-green.
Esq., King-street. sq., 3, Marlborough-olicitor.

ERICK

ry Hall,

REEP, LIMERICK.

OWEL,

TAMP OFFICE.

October 14.

DEATHS.

At his father's house, Church street, Ennis, David De Lacy Ryan, Esq. of the Royal College of Surgeons, London.

Elizabeth, wife of John Nason, Esq. of Newtown, co. Cork.

At Archerstown, county Tipperary, the wife of Henry Langley, Esq.

At Macroom, Mrs. Catherine Alcock, late of Kinsale.

At the Dispensary, Ross Carberry, in her 20th year, Dora Lucas Fitzgibbon.

At Philadelphia, William F. Tisdall, eldest son of the late William Tisdall, Esq. of this City.

In Nenagh, Mr. John Dungan.

Aged 22, Fanny, wife of John Smith, Esq. of Rosemary Parade, Solicitor, and daughter of Captain James Sheppard, of Clifden House, near Shinrone.

At Park Cottage, near Wexford, Lieut. Colonel Thompson, formerly of the 27th Regt.

At Summer Hill, Randal P. Macdonnell, Esq. of Westport.

At his residence, Savilla Place, Warrenpoint, in his 31st year, William Anderson, Esq. youngest son of the Rev. James Anderson, late of Moygannon, county Down, deceased.

At Serpentine Avenue, Sandymount, of gastric fever, Samuel Murray Mackee, only surviving son of the Rev. Thos. J. Mackee, of Rampton, Herts, aged 24.

Mary, wife of James G. Billing, Esq. Beresford Place.

At Cypress Grove, Templeogue, Caroline Anne, daughter of the late Captain Hughes, 63d Regiment.

Henry, eldest son of the late James Rosseter, Esq. Dublin.

At Lisburn, Charles Cupples, Esq. M.D. Assistant Surgeon of the Royal Artillery.

At Cootehill, Catherine, wife of Wm. Jameson, Esq.

In Belfast, Emma Georgiana Maria, wife of Thos. Frazer, Esq. Surgeon, Royal Navy, and eldest daughter of James D. Watt, Esq. Assistant Commissary General.

At Wilville, Carlingford, aged 77 years, Doctor Nicholas Gernon, formerly Surgeon in the 12th Light Dragoons.

The Rev. John Edwards, of Marnoch, Banffshire, to whose settlement so great an opposition was manifested, giving rise to proceedings which ultimately led to the disruption of the Church of Scotland in 1843.

At Stanton Villas, Lilford road, Camberwell, Mrs. Mary Earl, relict of the late John Earl, of Peckham.

Of typhus fever, Margaretta Louisa and Christiana Maria, the second and third daughters of the Rev. John L. Kirby, Vicar of Clacton, Essex.

From concussion of the brain; in consequence of being thrown from his carriage, Francis G. Campbell, Esq. of Troup and Glenlyon.

At Stonehouse, Reginald Frederick, son of the late Sir W. T. Pole, Bart.

At his residence in Great Surrey street, Blackfriars, in his 85th year, Robert Mayhew Thompson, Esq. late Surgeon to the 14th Light Dragoons.

At Scarborough, Lewis Novelli, Esq. of Manchester.

Hannah, wife of Henry Brien, Esq. of Feltham, Middlesex.

In Warwick street, Regent street, Richard Monins, Esq. late of the 52d Regt.

Aged 99, Mr. Thomas Lambert, printer and bookseller, Colliergate, York, the oldest letter press printer in England.

At Dalston, T. Parry, Esq. aged 87.

Richard Hicks, Esq. of Argyll square, King's cross.

At Brighton, G. F. M'Clintock, Esq. Bengal Civil Service, only son of the late Robert M'Clintock, Esq.

At Hastings, Mary, daughter of the late E. Kempson, Esq.

In Whitehorse street, Stepney, J. M. Fitzgerald, Esq. in his 74th year.

At Guernsey, Louisa, daughter of Mr. Thomas Quill.

Of fever, at the Mauritius, Lieut. Sidney R. Swinny, Royal Artillery, son of the Rev. George Stoney Swinny, of Ballyredmond, Clonagal.

At Lille, in France, Mrs. Cruice, widow of Lieut. Colonel Cruice, of the 52d Foot, who served under Sir John Moore, at Corunna, in Spain, and formerly a Captain in the Irish Brigade in France.

At Bytown, Doctor James Stewart, formerly of the 81s Regiment.

At Montreal, at the advanced age of 89 years, Joseph Workman, formerly of Ballymacash, near Lisburn.

street
C narc
C
Bell
C
M D
C Tho
D R C D
E G
E O'B
E
B G E ard
C Ve
It don F
P F
I
F
L Da
I Jos
I Jos
I
c Joh
T Ta
Li
W Ri
Jo
Th pr m at