DEATHS.

At his father's house, Lower Mallow-street, on Wednesday last, to the inexpressible sorrow of his fondly attached, but now resignedly afflicted parents, Charles Williams, aged 7 years and 4 months, eldest son of W. H. Owen, Esq. This most truly interesting and endearing child, who, even at this early age, showed, by many manifestations, future promise of talent and genius, has been, by the inscrutable wisdom of Providence, called from this, his earthly tabernacle, by malignant scarlatina, after only three days illness.
Last evening, at his house, in George's-street, Mr. Thomas Bentley, proprietor of the extensive tea, wine, and grocery establishment—much and deservedly regretted by his family and friends.
At Walshpark, Parsonstown, Jonathan W. Walsh, Esq. J.P. At his residence, Knockbrack, near Abbeyfeale, in the 73d year of his age, deeply regretted by his family and friends and the general community, Daniel Harnett, Esq. Generous, kind hearted, humane, and charitable—he was loved and esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Extensive properties in this and the adjoining county of Kerry depended on Mr. Harnett's demise, and insurances to a very large amount had been effected on his life. Through all the vicissitudes of this transitory world he maintained an upright and honourable character.
At Millbank, Naas, the residence of his brother-in-law, Captain Crawford, Michael Bury, Esq. of Downings House, county Kildare, a magistrate and grand juror of that county.
At Tulla, county Clare, Mr. Edmund O'Callaghan, for several years Postmaster of that town.
At Benmore Lodge, Dummore, at the advanced age of 102 years, Luke Prendergast, Esq.
In the 91st year of his age, William Kemmis, Esq. Killern House, Emo.
At Upper Court, Colonel George Bryan, of Jenkinstown, county Kilkenny, D. L. in the 53d year of his age.
At Parsonstown, Mr. Charles Connor.
At her residence, The Abbey, Hannah, relict of the late Thomas Nevins, of Waterford.
George Archer, Esq. Clerk of the Peace for the city of Dublin.
At Ballykelly House, county Kildare, of paralysis, Eleanora, wife of the Rev. Wm. White, aged 78.
At Kingston Buildings, Bandon, Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Thomas Holland, at an advanced age.
At Youghal, Jeremiah O'Locharney, Esq.
Suddenly, at Clonmel, Mr. Thomas M'Carthy, aged 73.
At Drumbeg, county Antrim, Isabella Louisa, wife of the Rev. W. Tyrrell.
Patrick Thomson, Esq. eldest son of the late Urquhart Thomson, Esq. of Dublin.
At his residence, Stephen's Green, in his 75th year, Samuel Wilmot, Esq. M.D. T.C.D.
Suddenly, Anne Douglas, eldest daughter of the late Gabriel Rice Redmond, Esq. Inspector General of Army Hospitals.
At Kells, county Meath, Mrs. Hannon.
At Kilmurry, Mary Teresa, daughter of Mr. Thomas Ponsonby.
At his son's residence in Dublin, Mr. Garrett Lander, Builder, late of Cork.
At Ennisceorthy, Mr. Wm. Stapleton Ward.
At Castletiny, Anne, relict of the late Rev. George Lloyd.
Hans Riddall, Esq.—late Comptroller of Customs in London-derry.
In London, Leonard Dobbin, jun. eldest son of Leonard Dobbin, of Gardiner's Place, Dublin, Esq.
George Miles, Esq. of Edwardes square, Kensington, Deputy Commissary General, in the 71st year of his age.
In the Commercial road, Lambeth, Mr. Joseph Clarke, for many years connected with the metropolitan press.
Suddenly, at King's road, Chelsea, Mrs. Mary M'Grath, granddaughter of the late Sir Nicholas Bayly, Bart. and first cousin of the Marquis of Anglesey.
At Arlington street, the Dowager Lady Feversham, in the 75th year of her age.
Suddenly, Major Edward Macready, at Clevedon, near Bristol.
At Chichester, Mr. W. Miller, Superior Bedell in Law for the University of Oxford.
At the Retreat, Battersea, Valentine Morris, Esq. aged 78.
The Rev. William Lewis, of Rochester, Curate of High Halston, and Chaplain of Melville Hospital.
At Brussels, Martha, widow of Lieut. Col. W. Williamson, C.B. of the Madras Army,

The Museum and Library of the late Philosophical Society, after its dissolution, with the view of placing them in some public Establishment for the use of the People of Limerick, and deeming it the best course I could adopt to hand them over to the
"LIMERICK SOCIETY,"
which has got possession of the Building, erected by the members for the use of the former Institution, called the "Philosophical Society House," which is likely to be a permanent Scientific Establishment and Public Museum in the city of Limerick, I hereby inform the various donors above referred to that I shall feel obliged if they communicate the nature of their gifts to the Secretaries of the "Limerick Society," Dr. D. GRIFFIN and Dr. KIDD, as I desire to be free from all responsibility upon these matters.

NOTICE.

THE Public are respectfully informed that from and after the FIRST day of NOVEMBER inst., the Firm of "BYRNE and WHELAN" will be conducted under the title of
WHELAN AND O'BRIEN,
CATTLE SALESMEN AND WOOL-FACTORS,
Without any alteration whatever in the customary arrangements of the House.
Mr. JAMES WHELAN takes this opportunity of returning thanks to his friends for the extensive patronage with which they have so kindly favoured him since the demise of his late Partner, Mr. Joseph Byrne; and now, having concluded with his Widow, Mrs. Byrne, for the purchase of her Interest in the Concerns, and availed himself of the active services, as Junior Partner, of Mr Robert O'Brien, who has been for some years connected with the Establishment, he trusts that by strictly attending to the interests of his Patrons, to merit a continuance of that confidence hitherto so liberally reposed in the Firm.

KILRUSH UNION.

THE Vice-Guardians of the above Union will on SATURDAY, the 18th day of November inst. receive Tenders for supplying the Workhouse and Temporary Dispensaries of the Union for 12 months with Medicines of the best quality.
By order,
JOHN M'DONNELL, Clerk of the Union.
Board Room, Nov. 8th, 1848.
Nov. 11.

KILMALLOCK UNION.

THE Guardians of the above Union will, on Thursday, the 16th inst., declare Contractors for supplying the Auxiliary Work-Houses at Charleville with best NEW MILK, until the 25th of March next, and SKIM MILK, until the 1st, or 15th January next. Sealed Tenders will be received by me up to 1 o'Clock on said day, to be laid before the Board at their meeting to be then held.
By Order,
MARTIN FEORE, Clerk of the Union.
Workhouse Office, Nov. 9, 1848.

BATHKEALE UNION.

THE Board of Guardians of Rathkeale Union are desirous of receiving Proposals for supplying the following Articles at the Rathkeale Union Workhouse in such quantities and at such periods as the same shall be required:—
400 Pairs of Blankets.
400 Coverlets or Rugs,
4,000 Yards of Strong Ticken,
6,000 Yards of Drogheda Linen,
400 Yards of Fwize,
1,000 Yards of Corduroy,
2,000 Yards of Flannel,
1,500 Yards of Check,
1,000 Yards of Lindsey Woolsey,
250 Mens' Caps,
250 Boys' Caps,
300 Pairs of Suspenders,
30 Stone of Wool.
If the Guardians shall deem it necessary the person whose proposal shall be accepted must enter into a written contract, and give such security as they shall require for the due performance thereof.
The Guardians having experienced much inconvenience from time to time, in contracting for the supply of Articles, by parties sending in large quantities of each article as samples, desire to have it understood, that the Tender of any party will be rejected, who will send before the Board more than one yard of each Article as a sample; and as the Guardians will contract for the best value, only one sample of each article will be received.
Sealed Tenders, properly endorsed, accompanying the above Samples, will be received by me, up to 11 o'Clock, (after which hour no Tender will be accepted) on Friday, the 17th November, 1848.
By Order of the Board,
MICHAEL FITZGIBBON, Clerk to the Guardians.
