

ers to the Croom Dis-
the COURT-HOUSE, December, 1850, at
cting a MEDICAL 00, in the room of
in consequence of his atic Asylum.

ad in their applica-
the Treasurer.

NING, Treasurer.

Important
SALE
CONTRACT
SUPERIOR
FURNITURE.
York, &c.
FIRST COST,
-street,
al Bank.

L, intending to surishment, beg leave to nd General Public that ained on Selling off the well selected Stock in usand Five Hundred COST.

excelled in Limerick,
riety, the quality of the manship—it embraces ted to the Public in all

t out the advantages o avail themselves of themselves with first- rate than they would
r inferior, ill seasoned,
The character of the
as kept with its Cus-
arantee for the quality
en spared in its manu-f the preference of the TRADE.

their stock of well sean has been cut from 3 to hey (the Trade) need not to be gained in the pur-ils at the price of fresh
e additional advantages
s of either the Timber uction will be made to y, J. & J. having arran-blishment.

Nov. 16.

only daughter of the late Henry John Lyden,
In Hanover, Lewis D. B. Gordon, Esq. C.E. Regius Professor of Civil Engineering and Mechanics in the University of Glasgow, to Marie, eldest daughter of the late David Heise, widow of Captain W. Glinder, Royal Artillery.
At Ostend, Mr. William Trist, of Brighton, to Mary Meek, daughter of Michael Walford Boyle, Esq. of Bruges.
Barnwall White, Esq. M.D. of Londonderry, to Kate, daughter of the late John O'Neill, Esq. of Liverpool.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Glenastar Lodge, to the grief of her discon-solate husband, Margaret, the beloved wife of Hugh Eldon Yeilding, Esq.; and, the following morning, Frances Mary, only daughter of William Richard Yeilding, Esq. departed this life, to the deep regret of her sorrowing friends.

On Monday night, at Thornville, near this City, Deborah Alicia, the infant daughter of Daniel Gabbett, Esq.
Yesterday morning, Dec. 3d, at Clonmoney House, co. Clare, after a few days illness, and in the prime of life, Margaret Ellen, the beloved wife of Matthew Canny, Esq.—A lady whose many virtues endeared her to a numerous circle of relatives and friends.

William Henry, eldest son of the Rev. George Gwynne, Wallstown Glebe.

At Tonyn, county Longford, at the age of 84 years, Mrs.
Power, wife of Jeffrey K. Power, Esq. and only daughter of the late Rev. James Little, Rector of Castle Lacken, co. Mayo.

Matilda, aged ten years, daughter of Richard O'Brien, Esq.
Cottage, Mitchelstown.

At Grenville Place, Cork, Edward Greer, son of Henry Unkles, Esq.

At Cloyne, Catherine, daughter of the late John Mullanny,
Esq. aged 70 years.

At Roundstone, Mr. Mathias Duane.
At Carlow, Mr. Daniel O'Meara.

Anne, daughter of the late John Taylor, of Clonmel.
On the 28th ult. at Leinster Terrace, Rathmines, of rapid decline, Percy William Cornwallis Lipyatt, Esq. late of the 24th Regt. only son of Charles Percy Lipyatt, Esq. the Priory, Dawlish, Devon.

At Seapoint, Bray, Charlotte, wife of John Morris, Esq.
At Cullenswood Avenue, Elizabeth, widow of the late Bernard M'Dermott, Auctioneer.

Edmund O'Donnell, Esq. fourth son of Michael O'Donnell, Esq. of Clareville, Cross-avenue, Booterstown.

At Blessington-street, Henry William, eldest son of Thomas Picton Reede, Esq.

At Newbridge, Andrew J. Ralph, Esq. apothecary.
At Sandymount, Morgan D. M'Sweeny, Esq.

Thomas Johnson, Esq. of Harrington-street.
Suddenly, at Belfast, Mr. Henry Barry, wine and spirit merchant, while walking the street.

At Miltown, Catherine Letitia, wife of R. Prior Page, Esq.
At Dover, Sir William Whymper, late Coldstream Guards.

At the Devonport Dockyard, suddenly, Lady John Hay.
At Ridsen, Hawkhurst, Kent, George French, Esq. aged 74.

At St. Leonard's-on-the-Sea, Frances Catherine, daughter of the Rev. J. Wetherall, of Rushton, Northamptonshire.

On Sunday last, suddenly, as he was entering the Independent Chapel, Truro, John Bayard, Esq. one of the oldest merchants of that borough.

In Hertford-street, May-fair, William Bertram Evans, Esq.
formerly M.P. for Leominster.

Edward L. Wilson, Esq. brother of the late General Sir Robert Wilson.

At his residence, in the Lansdowne-road, Wandsworth-road, Henry Ansell, Esq. Inspector-General of the Waterguard Department in her Majesty's Customs.

William Howard, eldest son of William Watson, Esq. Trede-gar-square.

In his 80th year, in Regent-street, City-road, James Broderick, Esq. formerly Captain and Adjutant of the 1st Royal Lancashire Militia.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Richard Butler, Esq. of Austin-friars, London, aged 79.

At New York, Mr. St. John Collins, formerly proprietor of the Drogheda Journal.

At Fairview, Londonderry, James Henry, Esq. aged 87 years.

Limerick, Nov. 6.

COUNTY
MR. WYNDHAM
meet daily at the
PATRICK-ST., from th

Hartigan's H
TO be Sold at Hart
on SATURDAY,
CARRIAGE HORSE,
16½ hands high, first r

Dec. 4.

ENNIS
Schoolmist
THE Board of Guard
ber inst, proceed t Situation of

FIRST CLASS
To the Workhouse, at Rations.

The Person who will
of teaching Grammar,
and write a perfect good
to teach according to t National Education, an Competency and charac Tenders marked "Te post addressed to the Guardians, and to be p
received on the morning
By

Board Room, Dec. 2.

ENNIS
THE Board of Guar
ber inst, receive Workhouse and its three months with

Best I
At —
The Contractor will
at the Workhouse and such quantities and a require, free of expens
enter into bond for th
Tenders accompanie
post marked on the ou
and should be posted on the morning 11th

Dec. 4.