GENTLEMEN, FREEMEN, MERCHANTS, and TRADERS of the City of LIMERICK.

Gentlemen and fellow Citizens,

H I S Pamphlet, the only one of the Kind T ever printed here, will appear at first View, trifling to some, but I believe it will be found useful to many others; at any Rate, it will shew the present State and Constitution of this City, better perhaps than a voluminous History.

I N such a Variety of Names, there are possibly some errors, whatever they are, on better Information, they shall be carefully amended in any future Edition.

I should Gentlemen, in Gratitude dedicate every Book I publish to you, who have in the most generous Manner patronized my Undertaking, and encouraged me to print a News-paper in this City.

O N the Liberty of the Press, in a great Measure depends the Stability of our happy Constitution, it is an inestimable Blessing that ought to extend to every Corner of the Globe.

I hope Gentlemen, you will always find me to bestow on my Business, that Assiduity, which the public Nature of it requires; and whenever Oppression or Injustice appear among us, let me lose your Friendship (on which I set the highest Value) if I do not oppose them to the utmost of my Power, and hand down the Authors to our Posterity.

I N short, I shall study to please the Public; and if possible every Individual in this City, and on every Occasion to convince you, how much I am

Gentlemen and fellow Citizens,

Your obliged,

Devoted,

Humble Servant,

J. FERRAR.
