WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Wed. May 15.—Cattle.—Average entry, class on sale well up to last week. Beef shorter supply, less bullocks and heifers, useful lots easily sold. Fresh young cows of medium size in steady demand at full current rates; forward stores of the right stamp found willing purchasers; bullocks for preference in both two-year old and yearlings. There was a big attendance of buyers for all useful lots. The yearlings on sale were well brought out in strong demand and found plenty of buyers. Prices on the basis of recent rates, well up to previous level; value position continues steady. Poor lots and secondary grades hard to cash. Good clearance effected. Fat heifers, 18 to 26; cows, best, 20 to 25; second run, 14 5s. to 19; two-year-old bullocks and heifers, best, 13 12s. 6d. to 15 10s.; second run, 9 12s. 6d. to 13 6s.; yearlings, best, 12 12s. 6d. to 15 10s.; second run, 10 14s. to 12; backward, 7 15s. to 9 15s.

Sheep.—Extra heavy entry, a mixed class, really well done sheep scarce, but plenty of good mutton. Full attendance of buyers. All round trade not as active, though best pens touched last Wednesday's rates. Well fed hoggets firm in inquiry and exchange, as the weather is getting warmer they are preferred to heavy sheep; fresh well fed sheep in demand and about held their price; secondary and rough sorts tedious. Fresh ewes sold well. Store hoggets quiet. Choice fat lambs in strong demand and readily placed. All round trade not as bright as last week, buyers operating cautiously. Market moved in an easier groove. Fat middleweight, 95/- to 105/-; small, 66/- to 92/-; hoggets, best, 80/- to 100/-; second run, 70/- to 79/-; stores, 45/- to 63/6; ewes, best, 74/- to 85/-; second run, 52/- to 60/-; lambs, best, 51/- to 62/-; second run, 30/- to 43/-.—Wm. B. Pitt & Co., Auctioneers.

We mourn the loss of one to-day.
Who loved us dear and true;
Oh, bitter was the trial to part
From one so kind and true.

The dearest brother this world contained,
Dear Christy, that was you,
A prayer from those who knew him
Is all we ask to-day.

—Inserted by his sisters, Annie, Mary and family.

Since you left our humble dwelling.
To go, I know, to a brighter home,
To Our Saviour Dear in Heaven.

Perhaps in a few short years

God shall call us, too;
With joy we'll leave this valley of tears.

In heaven we hope to meet you,
Memory of a loved one mother always keeps,

My sadness lies for ever
In the grave where Josephine sleeps.

A loving child was taken.

Indeed, it was a cross;

Only God knows how our hearts are breaking,

To us, dear "Phil," you're a loss.

We prayed and asked God not to take you,

A child so young and free;

But God said to His Angels:

"Bring Phyllis Lynch to Me."

Your constant prayer will be:

That your parents, brothers and sister
Will be with you for eternity.
