

and put the processionists to flight. In order to prevent the repetition of a like occurrence the constabulary have sought to get the bound over to keep the peace. The following are the defendants:—Martin Riordan, Liston, Kate Liston, Pat Connell, Agnes Henry Simcox, Timothy Sullivan, Pat Gals, Johanna Connors, John Aberne, Pat Gals, Johanna Riordan, Maryanne Cahill, Dalton, Johanna Cahill, William Dalton, Robert Dalton, and Ellen Dalton.

M P Leahy, SCS, prosecuted on behalf of the Crown, and Messrs Curtin and McCarthy, appeared for the defendants.

Interest appeared to be manifested in the proceedings, and there were only ten extra policemen sent into the town.

In the cases having been called, Mr Leahy said that, having regard to the lateness of the hour (1.30), and the fact that he was bound to attend the Limerick City Sessions on to-morrow, he did not think it was possible that his Worship should commence and finish the cases that evening. He would ask him that under the circumstances to let them stand until next Petty Sessions.

Mr McCarthy opposed the application, and Mr Leahy, in the interests of all parties, asked the peace of the district, to have the charges withdrawn.

Mr Leahy said that his instructions were to attend and prosecute in the cases. Discretion not having been left with him, he could not, on his own behalf, withdraw the summonses, so that he would ask for an adjournment.

In consequence of the Kerry and Limerick cases interfering, it was ultimately agreed to adjourn the cases until the 27th July.

On the cases being over leaving, the chairman said he was sorry that all through the country the police and the people have been in a state of variance. It was a very unseemly and very unpopular course to be calling names to the constabulary, and it was merely doing their duty. It was a very bad and a very cowardly thing to do, and was reprehensible. Grown people put up little
